Inner Terrain Practitioner Agreement

Inner Terrain, Saturday 23 and Sunday 24 October 2027, Melbourne
Hosted by Van Seng, The Natural Health Option

Thank you for joining Inner Terrain. This agreement sets out what we will do for you, what we ask of you, and how the weekend will run. It is a goodwill agreement between practitioners, written in plain language.

Your place in the program

Inner Terrain is built on four pillars: physical, emotional, spiritual and environmental. You will present within the pillar named below, alongside three other practitioners.

Your pillar _____

- Sunday: four one hour sessions with small groups of up to five guests, one group per session
- Please wrap up each session at 50 minutes so groups can move on time

There is no fee to take part, and no payment is made to practitioners.

Sunday schedule

Time	What happens

2:00 to 3:00	Session four
3:00 to 3:15	Break
3:15 to 4:00	Group reflection
4:00 to 5:00	Trio sound healing finale

What Inner Terrain provides

- A profile page on innerterrain.com.au with your photo, bio, services and contact details
- A spotlight post on the Inner Terrain Instagram page, shared as a collab post so it reaches your followers as well
- Your own discount code giving your clients $25 off a ticket
- A place in the printed program and goodie bag material
- The chance to present to a room of people who are interested in their health
- A complimentary ticket for both days

What we ask of you

- List the event on your website, with a link to innerterrain.com.au, from May until the event, and share it on your social media at least three times between May and October

© 2026 The Natural Health Option. All rights reserved.

- Send at least one email about the event to your client list
- Display flyers in your clinic or workspace
- Aim to bring three paying guests using your discount code
- Supply your bio, a professional photo and your session description by 15 March 2027
- Arrive at least 30 minutes before your session

Practitioner meet and video day

All practitioners agree to attend a meet day on Sunday 28 February 2027 (venue to be confirmed), before tickets go on sale. On the day we will:

- Meet each other and walk through how the weekend will run
- Film your two minute introduction video explaining your approach and what guests will experience in your Sunday session

Your video will appear on your profile on innerterrain.com.au and on the session selection page, and a 60 second cut will be shared on Instagram, so guests can choose who they would like to see. Please prepare what you would like to say beforehand and keep it within TGA and AHPRA guidelines.

Door prize

Each practitioner agrees to donate one private session as a door prize, to be drawn during the event. The winner books directly with you and the session must be honoured within six months of the event.

Your name and business will be announced with the draw and listed with your door prize on the website.

Content and compliance

All promotion and presentations must follow TGA and AHPRA advertising guidelines. Please avoid claims of cure, guaranteed outcomes and testimonials in your session material. Inner Terrain may ask to see slides or handouts before the event.

You may share information about your services and booking details during your session. Direct selling of products on the day is permitted at your table, except for therapeutic goods that need a consultation first (see Remedies and products).

Your profile and method name

Your profile on innerterrain.com.au may name the method you practise, because that is part of what makes your approach unique.

- By submitting your profile, you confirm you are trained and, where required, accredited or licensed to use that method's name. If a method name is trademarked and you are not accredited to use it, describe your approach without the name.
- Your profile describes what happens in your session. It must not claim to diagnose, treat or cure any condition.
- Van reviews and approves every profile before it is published, and may ask for changes.

Insurance and responsibility

You must hold current professional indemnity and public liability insurance for the services you present, and provide a copy of your certificate of currency by 30 August 2027.

Working with Children Check

Young people may attend with their families. Every practitioner must hold a current Victorian Working with Children Check and provide the card number and expiry date by 30 August 2027.

Guest safety and conduct

- Ask each guest for consent before any hands-on work, and respect a guest who prefers not to be touched
- Do not diagnose, or give individual treatment advice, in group sessions; invite guests to book with you privately instead
- Let the event team know straight away if a guest becomes unwell or distressed

Guest details and privacy

You may only collect a guest's contact details if they choose to give them to you, for example through a sign up sheet or by taking your card. Do not add guests to your mailing list without their permission.

Remedies and products

Homeopathic remedies and other therapeutic goods must not be sold or handed out on the day, as they require a consultation first.

Equipment and setup

Please bring everything you need for your sessions, such as a table, mats or instruments, and tell us what you are bringing by 30 August 2027. Room access for setup opens at 8am on Sunday.

Photos and recordings

The event may be photographed or filmed for promotion. By signing, you consent to your image and session being used in Inner Terrain and The Natural Health Option marketing. Tell us in writing if you would prefer not to be recorded.

Cancellation

If you can no longer take part, please give at least four weeks notice so your place can be filled. If the event is cancelled or postponed, Inner Terrain will let you know as early as possible.
